INSTRUCTIONAL PROCEDURES IN SCIENCE at the ZOO

(Education: Adv. Practitioner) - EDAP 657
(3 hrs.) UofL graduate credit

June 7 – June 11, 2011
8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Join University of Louisville's Dr. Sherri Brown and Louisville Zoo curators Marcelle Gianelloni and Doug McCoy for an introduction in using the Louisville Zoo as an instructional venue for your PreK-12 students. You will be provided background information and experience needed to teach animal adaptations, animal endangerment, and animal diversity of lifestyles. During this course you will learn how to demonstrate the application of these experiences to the PreK - 12 classroom.

A nominal fee of $50 will be charged the first class day for the course textbook and daily entrance to the zoo. (Note: Zoo Membership cannot be considered as a replacement for the course fee).

For additional questions, email Dr. Brown at s.brown@louisville.edu
